

I urge the FCC to deny the above petition. My bank has my current mailing address and my current email address. If they wish to contact me they may do so through these means. I consider all solicitation calls an intrusion into my private life and that's why my name and phone number are on Indiana's no call list. Please do not allow this group to circumvent this list. Thank you.